Caring Campus....

You may have seen an email regarding our Welcome Back to OC Students. The start of the semester is always a busy time for us, but it is also a scary time for new and returning students. We would like to invite you all to support our Caring Campus Efforts. We have created a sign up sheet with timeslots for employees to be stationed throughout the college to help answer questions and guide students to their classes.

We ask that you please consider signing up & coming to help wearing your OC gear and nametags: Caring Campus Sign Up

PG Committee Sign Ups...

Our Participatory Governance Committees will be starting this month. As you may know, our Past President, Amparo Medina, fought very hard to ensure our classified voices are heard and ensure we have seats at the table. With this being said, we are asking for sign-ups for our PG committees.

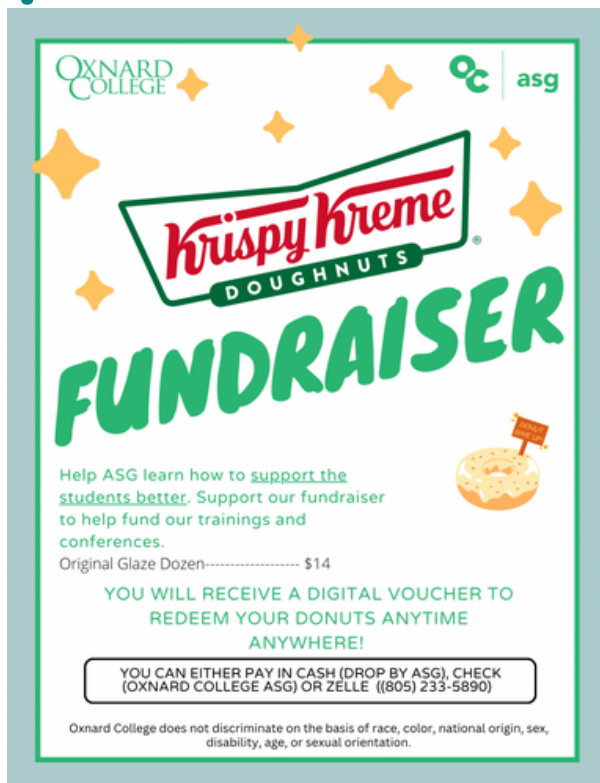

Our union contract, section 11.24, states employees shall have release time for participation in college and/or district committees with a maximum release time to not exceed 18 hours. Participation in PG committees is supported by our union and we encourage it to allow for more participation in the decision-making process.

If you are interested in signing up, please click the link below. The link also includes information for all the PG Committees: 2023-2024 OC PG Committees - CS Representatives

Students Need your Help...

ASG is planning on doing multiple fundraisers throughout the semester to raise money for travel and registration expenses. They have many interesting conferences, including ASGA and HACU, they are planning on going to and are asking for our help with their very first fundraiser.

These conferences are very helpful to our student leaders as they strive to learn how to serve and advocate for their fellow students. These are the students we work so tirelessly for so your help will be greatly appreciated.

The poster features the Oxnard College logo and ASG logo at the top. The Krispy Kreme Doughnuts logo is prominently displayed in the center. Below it, the word "FUNDRAISER" is written in large, green, stylized letters. To the right of the text is an illustration of a donut. The text on the poster reads: "Help ASG learn how to support the students better. Support our fundraiser to help fund our trainings and conferences." Below this is a price list: "Original Glaze Dozen----- $14". A large green box contains the text: "YOU WILL RECEIVE A DIGITAL VOUCHER TO REDEEM YOUR DONUTS ANYTIME ANYWHERE!". At the bottom, a smaller box states: "YOU CAN EITHER PAY IN CASH (DROP BY ASG), CHECK (OXNARD COLLEGE ASG) OR ZELLE ((805) 233-5890)". At the very bottom, a small disclaimer reads: "Oxnard College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or sexual orientation."
