

CALIFORNIA CAREER & TECHNICAL
EDUCATION COMMUNITY COLLABORATIVE
(SB70) & SOUTH CENTRAL
REGIONAL CONSORTIUM
Present

SKILLS FOR THE 21ST CENTURY

Learning Outcomes: Participants will be able to identify/discuss at least five strategies to enhance career and technical education at their institutions.

FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 2011 8 AM-NOON (BREAKFAST 8-9 AM)

COURTYARD BY MARRIOTT, 600 ESPLANADE DRIVE, OXNARD, CA

REGISTER AT: WWW.COMMUNITYED.VENTURACOLLEGE.EDU

(Click CTE Conference Link) This event is FREE

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Spend an unforgettable morning with Dr. Richard Pimentel, nationally renowned speaker and expert on career education, as well as job development for special needs populations. As a consultant, professional trainer, and author of numerous curricula and training guides, Dr. Pimentel is distinguished by his ability to predict industry trends and employers' needs.

DISTINGUISHED PANELISTS

- Erik Amerikaner, Computer Teacher, Oak Park High School, Oak Park Unified School District
- Laurie Bennett, Vice President, ARBEE Incorporated, Parent Company of Fence Factory and C&W Construction Specialties
- Matthew Graczyk, CEO & Founder, Coupez-Coupons, Discounts, Promotions
- Dr. Anne Roudy-Harter, Principal, De Anza Middle School Academy of Technology and the Arts, Ventura Unified School District
- Dr. Rano Sidhu, Science Teacher/Director, Health Science Academy Nordhoff High School, Ojai Unified School District

CLOSING SPEAKER

Author and award winning public speaker, Irene Brennick is Director of Volunteers at Los Robles Hospital and Medical Center managing 650-700 volunteers and is founder of GOAL models speaking program for at-risk teens.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Middle school, high school, ROP, community college faculty, administrators, counselors, and others involved in career exploration and education

Sponsored by Career and Technical Education Community Collaborative (SB70) and South Central Regional Consortium (www.sccc.org)

Funded by Carl D. Perkins IV Title 1B CTE funds awarded to Ventura County Community College District by California Community College Chancellor's Office

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Luann Swanberg
805.654.6400 x1256
lswanberg@vcccd.edu

VENTURA COLLEGE

4667 Telegraph Road, Ventura, CA 93003
805.654.6400 venturacollege.edu