

VCCCD – “Staff” Wireless Setup for Vista users

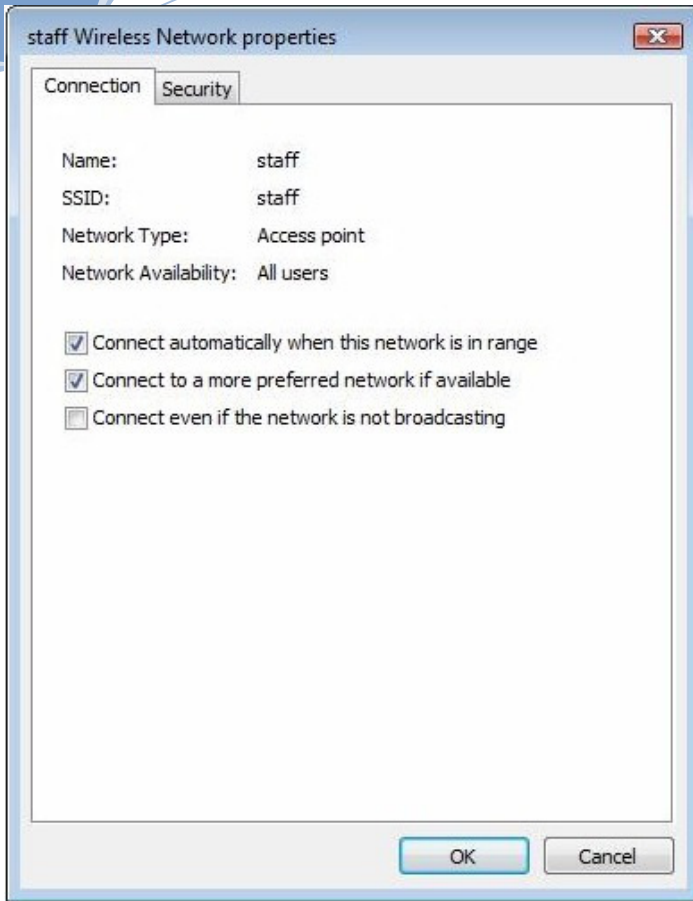

Step 1: Using the mouse, click on the network icon located on the task bar, lower right hand corner. Select “Connect to a network” as shown above.

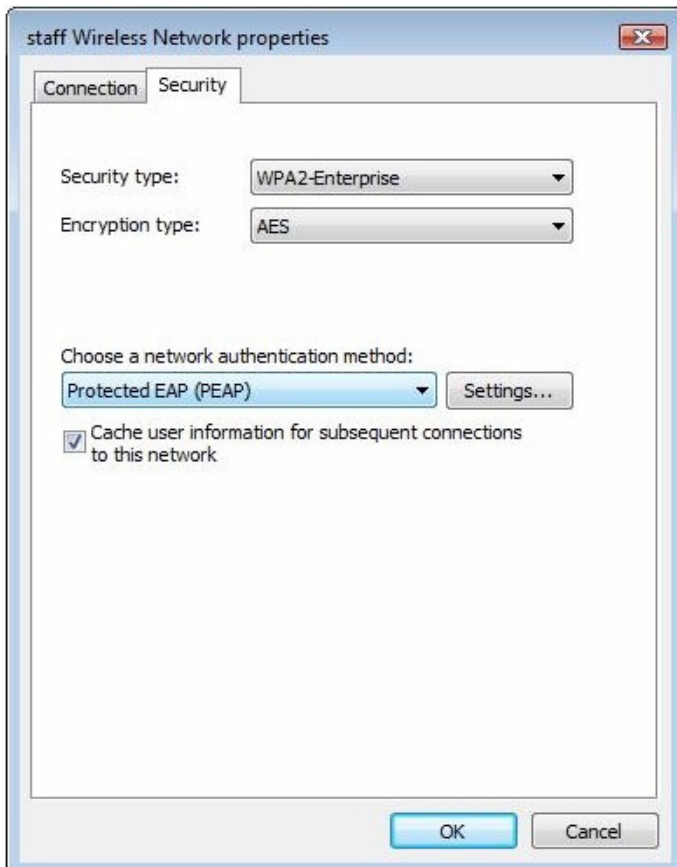

Step 2: In the “Connect to a network” area, right-click on the “staff” network. In the drop-down box select “Properties” to configure your wireless settings.

VCCCD – “Staff” Wireless Setup for Vista users

Step 3: “Staff” - Connections Tab

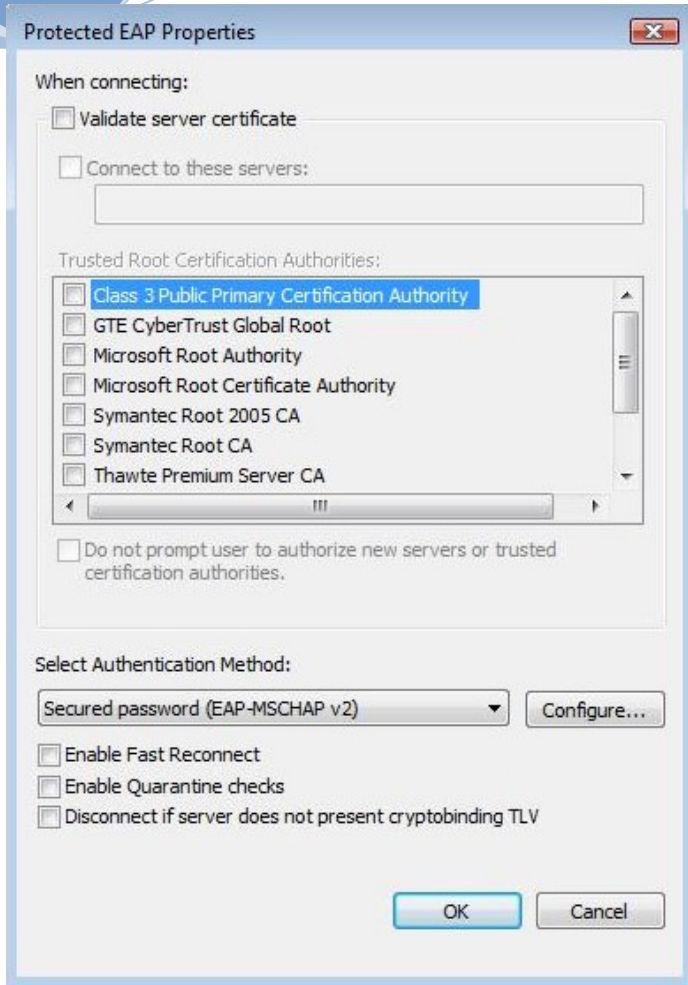

Wireless Network properties need to validate that the top two boxes are checked. Leave the “not broadcasting” box unchecked.

Step 4: “Staff” - Security Tab

Wireless Network properties need to validate that the top two boxes are checked. Leave the “not broadcasting” box unchecked.

VCCCD – “Staff” Wireless Setup for Vista users

Step 5: Network Authentication method (Protected EAP -PEAP)

A) Make sure that “Validate server certificate” is not checked.

B) Make sure that every box is not checked in the “Trusted Root Certification Authorities” area.

C) Select from the drop-down the “Secured password (EAP-MSCHAP v2)” from the list. Leave every box unchecked.

Step 6: Enter Credentials

a) Username: Use your Active Directory (AD) username

b) Password: Your AD password

c) Leave Login domain blank

click OK