I. Call to Order

Academic Senate (AS) President R. Cabral called meeting to order at 2:34pm

II. Public Comments/Announcements

- Treasurer’s Report: $1,455.37
  - Senate Dues are coming due: watch out for emails and flyers

- Announcements:
  - R. Cabral introduced Candice Moss our 2nd instructional technologist who is excited to be here. Her office is in the Faculty Resource Center in the LRC.
  - R. Cabral distributed 14.05/16.01 which is a look at the course/program cuts. He asked Senators to review the documents to see what cuts were made.
  - R. Cabral also announced that all OC sabbaticals were approved and thanked Ishita Edwards for serving as the Sabbatical Chair.
  - R. Cabral announced he will be on the Chancellor’s hiring committee.

- Public Comments:
  - Andrea Baltazar: Thank you to the faculty for their good advice and meeting with students on a regular basis. She also talked about being proud to be a student advocate and said that when they began it was a 0 sum game, but “not anymore,” she claims.
  - George Ortega: He is about to finish the TV program here on campus and he is thrilled to see smiling faces on campus because, he says, “as a community, we saved the program.” He thanks R. Cabral for always being at all of the meetings and says, “There is still hard work ahead of us to build our community college and program, but the communication channels are open.”
  - Juan Smith thanked the faculty for being there and explains how everyone thought the TV program was DOA but the program did make it and there are only 3 students at Senate today because students know they can breathe a little easier although they are not ready to stop the hard work.

- Board of Trustee Chair Stephen Blum was in attendance at this meeting. Mainly he took questions from the audience.
  - R. Cabral led with the challenges of Fall 2011 and claims, “we know more work is ahead of us.”
  - Trustee Blum said “we didn’t sign up for these cuts and hurting programs. We know it has been hard for the student. It’s a shame what is happening in California.” He told the Senate “not to vote for people who don’t care about local education/control.”

- Q and A began:
- R. Cabral: About the recently adopted Board Goals: what do these Board goals mean to us? Can we integrate them with the Board’s vision?
Trustee Blum said, “We shouldn’t tell you what to do here. The more management stays out of it, the better decisions are. Less we tell you, the better.”

T. Bonham: Is it okay to have our own unique way of meeting these Board Goals at OC?

Trustee Blum said, “Maybe. Some things should be uniform. Go to Dr. Duran and Erika for more information here.”

Lynn Fauth: His question centered on the meaning of the term “optimal” used in the Board Goals. According to Sue Johnson, “optimal” at VC seems to be the enrollment floor. What is optimal for OC’s college size in terms of enrollment?

Trustee Blum said “optimal is an opinion.”

Lynn Fauth: “OK what’s the opinion of the Board?”

Trustee Blum said he’s not sure why OC has always been the smallest and isn’t comfortable giving an opinion of the entire Board. In the past, OC didn’t have enough classrooms, so we built it up. Now you have the classrooms, but there isn’t any money to grow it. The economy has changed the definition of optimal. There has been no discussion about closing the school or making it a satellite campus.

Gloria Guevara: How will you measure these goals? Will our funding be tied to our success rates?

Trustee Blum said tying success to funding is a bad idea. Sacramento may have said some of these things, but he does not believe in doing this. It will just reward the rich and hurt the poor, he said.

Linda Kamaila: She mentioned that the cuts now seem more equitable. She is pleased the Board stepped in and changed the cuts. We are bare boned and she thanked Trustee Blum for helping to change the philosophy.

Trustee Blum then passed out the “VCCCD Comparison of Monetary Allocations.”

Jim Merrill: He spoke/questioned about the risk of measuring a college by their number of degrees. He spoke about success rates and policies of the college.

Trustee Blum said success is a relative term and it is hard to quantify.

Secretary Edwards asked that Trustee Blum clarify the vote about TV and OCTV.

Trustee Blum said the TV instructional program was saved.

Andres Orozco announced that the TV program has a mandate to revamp the program. He has met with the Dean, the EVP, and the President. Students will be involved and he continues by adding this was a humbling experience and he needs to avoid being on his own island. He now recognizes the importance of shared governance and how the community aspect is very important. He explained that OCTV is our lab; it’s the hands-on practical application that reaches over 50,000 homes. TV needs to be amplified and a complement wed based medium as well. He asks Trustee Blum: Do you think the BOT would like a progress report?

Trustee Blum told him to discuss that progress report with the OC campus.

Diane Eberhardy asked Trustee Blum to discuss the renewing of the Deans for 1 and 2 year periods.

Trustee Blum said this comes up every year. The 1 year group has to be done by March 15th and 2 years is common place. He claims this is a reaffirmation that their services are appreciated and warranted.

Diane Eberhardy followed up with some issues that Deans/Administration seemed that they can’t be touched.

Trustee Blum said Administration will be 2 less than last year and the Administration District-wide has been reduced by 8-10 people over the last few years. Full-time faculty have not been touched too much. No Furlough days for campus and no health benefits reduced.

Jim Merrill clarifies the difference between OCTV program and the TV instructional program.

Trustee Blum reiterated that the less we tell you, the better you do.

Della Newlow claims that sometimes when the budget cuts come we only look at one thing. Why don’t we look broader? For example, maybe taking a few Furlough days instead of cutting a few programs?
Trustee Blum said, “We have a contract with the faculty. He’s heard these things discussed, but he knows how sacred a contract is since he is also a lawyer. Changing the calendar is very complicated, but Della’s points are well taken.”

Gloria Guevara: Will we see unity standardizing across all 3 campuses?

Trustee Blum said this is something people talk about, but very difficult to get done. It’s something they’d like to see happen because it seems like a good idea.

Linda Kamaila: She asked that the BOT think about hiring people already on campus for the Chancellor position. “Even you, Trustee Blum, would be an excellent Chancellor,” she says.

Trustee Blum said this process does not hinder anyone from applying. If local campus people apply, great! We are hiring using an outside source as a combined search, in hopes of a better pool of candidates.

R. Cabral: Please come to our campus for a BOT meeting.

Trustee Blum thanked the faculty for all of their hard work.

III. Senate Action Items

- December 12, 2011 Meeting Minutes
  i. 1st Diane Eberhardy; 2nd Maria Parker; 1 abstention-minutes approved

IV. Impact of Budget Cuts

- DCAS: (R. Cabral) The meeting was last week and the major focus was to begin a conversation about the allocation model. Sue Johnson presented a PowerPoint that speaks to the CA finances and the 9 million dollar shortfall for the 2013 calendar. Sue Johnson will be our interim financial officer since John Al-Amin moved to a new district.

  - Planning and Budgeting Council:
    i. The meeting was last week. R Cabral provided the Senate with the minutes and agenda. He claims PBC might need to revisit the budget holistically to look at the revenue stream and the facilities master plan since it isn’t integrated into the PBC committee. We need a better sense of decision making about finances on this campus. It needs to be streamlined and PBC is discussing this process.
    ii. Erika Endrijonas added information about the flow of information and the Facilities Master Plan. She claims the Master Plan needs to be revisited because everything needs to eventually come together at PBC. We have to make shared governance actually happen.

  - Program Effectiveness and Planning Committee
    i. The meeting was scheduled for January 24, 2012. The topic of discussion will be how to get AP4021 into planning. Program discontinuance has to start at the faculty level and we need to get a process in place. They will be reviewing the forms for the PEPRs to embrace a new methodology for program review.
    ii. A discussion about student success began.
