3.9 New Business: Conflict Resolution
- At this point, the meeting had been going for 3 hours.
- Raul started off the discussion by presenting the current conflict to the board.
- The current conflict within ASG was mainly unresolved issues that were lingering from the controversy that arose during the spring semester.
- Once Raul was finished explaining to everyone exactly what was going on in within ASG every member present was given the opportunity to say what they had to say on the matter.
- Tension was high but everyone spoke to each other in a respectful manner.
- Carlos admitted where he went wrong, in regards to last semester’s controversy, and apologized for doing so.
- Oscar did the same.
- Hung cleared up misunderstandings that occurred between him and other members.
- Once everyone was done giving their input, Raul asked if there was anyone who was still upset over everything or anything and a few members raised their hands.
- Laurien pointed out that some of the questions that a few members had regarding the controversy were left unanswered.
- ASG agreed that because there is no proof showing that certain members were responsible for certain things that happened last semester that it would be best to leave it in the past and move forward in the same direction as one.
- Deserie pointed out that agreeing to move forward wouldn’t be enough, we must each prove that we meant what we said by showing it from this point forward.
- On that note, Raul suggested that at our next meeting we discuss what is expected of us as ASG, and what we all expect from each other.
- Raul also mentioned that we need to make up for the time that was lost over the summer and at next week’s meeting, decide what our goals will be for the 2011/2012 school year.
- The meeting was adjourned after this topic, because it was close to 2pm, and everyone left feeling somewhat more positive as to the future of ASG.
