

VCCCD Citizens Advisory Body Survey 2012

1. Introduction

Ventura County Community College District's (VCCCD) Board of Trustees (Board) established the Citizens Advisory Body for the purpose of ensuring that its mission, programs, and services are meeting community needs. Citizens Advisory Body members represent diverse interests and constituents throughout Ventura County.

As part of the Board's strategic planning activities, VCCCD is seeking perspective and input from members of the Citizens Advisory Body to utilize constituency and community feedback in the areas of continued educational excellence, planning, and integrity in its role as a community college educational system.

How did the VCCCD perform in meeting the following goals? Please respond in a manner that best reflects your opinion. If you have no knowledge of or are unaware of the question being asked, simply indicate "Do Not Know" or leave blank. Please complete and submit the anonymous survey by noon on Wednesday, June 13, 2012.
