NOTE: ENGLISH courses requiring online hours: Online hours will be conducted using Desire2Learn. You must have regular, reliable computer and Internet access in order to participate successfully in this class. You should be able to send and receive emails, add and open attachments, and do a basic Google search. Specifics about how to navigate in Desire2Learn will be provided in class and in online lectures during the first week. You will have access to the online portion of the class one week prior to the actual start of the semester. Limited information will be posted at this time. You must attend the face to face class meetings and participate in online work. To access the class after you have enrolled, login in to http://my.vcccd.edu/cp/home/loginf. Once you have successfully logged in, look in the top right corner for My Courses, or you may look in the center of the page where a list of the courses in which you are enrolled will appear. Click on the title for this course, and this will take you to the homepage for this course. General information and announcements will be included on the homepage. Specific information will be included under Content. Content is in the menu bar towards the top of the page. For more information on online classes at Oxnard College, click on the following link: http://www.oxnardcollege.edu/departments/administrative/distance_ education/index.shtml.
