Called to Order 2:01 By Senate President Amy Edwards	Motion to Adopt Agenda 1. Josh Lieser 2. Michelle Brownlee	Called to order 2:01 by Senate President Amy Edwards  Changes to the agenda: For the April meeting location we need to vote on Brown Act.
Public Comment	Trustee Stan Mantooth	Trustee Stan Mantooth joined us. This area is now his district and he wants to listen and learn at our meeting today.
	Student Trustee Bryan Rodriguez	Please let students know about the student elections. Applications to run for election are due April 7.  Chat: Senate VP Elissa Caruth: How do we invite them into our classes? Student Trustee Bryan Rodriguez: https://www.vcccd.edu/students/student-elections
	Dolores Ortiz	The California Freedom Summer (CFS) research project through UCLA is training student interns and paying a $5000 stipend to interns for conducting research. They will be on campus registering people to vote. There is no TAG transfer agreement for UCLA, but this program can help build those relationships, and help pour students transfer to UCLA.  Chat: Senator Dolores Corine Ortiz: Please just send me an email with your class meeting times locations/zooms etc. and I can pass the info on to help coordinate student presentations.
Action Items Approval of Minutes	1. Chris Mainzer 2. Teresa Bonham	Passed: unanimously 20-1

Faculty Resource/ Hiring Ranking (2nd Reading)	1. Teresa Bonham 2. Yong Ma	In BoardDocs are the compiled results of individual Senate votes. We will discuss the results showcased on this document, make any changes we deem necessary, and vote (second read). After the vote, ASP will submit our results to the Budget committee. Discussion:          Senator Lily Ruvalcaba: I am concerned that the counseling positions are at the bottom 3rd of the list.          Senator Teresa Bonham: This looks fair, reasonable. I can support this.          Senator Mike Ketaily: This was fair and thank you for guiding us.          Senate President Amy Edwards: I think that counseling has been at the forefront of hiring for the past few years. They have also had specialty hires recently. Chat:          Senate Secretary Marcia Fulkerson: Veterans position is a counselor that's ranked 3rd. We are also getting a new STEAM counselor right now.... funded thru a grant.          Senator Charles D Ramirez: Great point Marcia. A STEM Counselor will be huge for all Counseling on campus. Passed: 23-0
Faculty Code of Ethics (AAUP)	1. Ishita Edwards 2. Yong Ma	While reviewing our ISER for accreditation, we noticed a section about the "Faculty Code of Ethics." This statement was adopted by the Academic Senate in 2008 and has not been affirmed since. It is time to review the statement which is taken directly from the American Association of University Professor (AAUP). This statement can be found in our faculty handbook and in the ISER. In BoardDocs you will find the statement. Do we wish to modify or reaffirm? Discussion:          Senate President Amy Edwards: I've been reading ISER, I found the Faculty Code of Ethics was last updated in 2008.          Senator Dolores Ortiz: We need to add an anti-racism component to show we are serious about this. Ethics should be at the beginning.          Senator Alan Hayashi: Is the motion to accept as is?          Senate President Amy Edwards: Yes Chat:          Senator Lois Zsarnay, LMFT, CEDS, EMDR, BCPC, RD: No, I think we need to add the diversity/inclusivity statement

		Senator Thomas A Stough:  https://www.oxnardcollege.edu/faculty-staff/academic-senate/bylaws          Senate Secretary Marcia Fulkerson: it's a good discussion anyway. 16-21 passed. Senate reaffirmed.
Old Business ISLOs          Feedback from          Departments	1. Elissa Caruth          2. Michelle Brownlee	Update: No feedback has been received on this document to date. We will review it one last time before it becomes an action item in April. What have your constituency groups said about the new ISLOs? They are in BoardDocs Discussion:          Senate VP Elissa Caruth: English Department thinks they are great.          Senator Teresa Bonham: Yes they are great. Chat:          Senator Lois Zsarnay, LMFT, CEDS, EMDR, BCPC, RD:          Law &amp; Community had no suggestions for changes/updates to the proposed ISLOs Vote 22-0 passed
Update from          Academic Senate          Constitution and By-Laws          Work Group		Work Group Members: Ishita Edwards, Cat Yang, Tom Stough, Elissa Caruth, and Charles Ramirez          They will provide an update on their process so far or an update on the plans for their work. We are hopeful we will vote on changes in April (first and second read). Still possible?          The current by-laws and Constitution are in BoardDocs again for your information. Discussion:          Senate Treasurer Ishita Edwards: Yes, we are almost done on both. We will have the final next Senate mtg April 11.          Senate President Amy Edwards: April 11 for 1st read vote, April 25 for 2nd read vote.
Swag Update	Senate President          Amy Edwards	Swag Discussion Update: The bags will be $700 which is cheap at $2.00 a bag. It's not something for this semester, maybe Fall flex would have a greater impact? I think we can do something more important and impactful at that time. Maybe in the summer senate executive team can look at shirts or stickers? Discussion:

		Senate Treasurer Ishita Edwards: How do we go about getting minimum number of shirts with different sizes?  Senate President Amy Edwards: I'd order a sprinkling of sizes and maybe a mug.  Senator Lois Zsarnay: Classified has jackets for engraving individual orders with senator engraved.  Senate President Amy Edwards Good idea, let's keep thinking without competition.  Senator Dolores Ortiz: We can change up the logo and engraving.  Senate President Amy Edwards: True, maybe the mug might be the answer because it's also cheaper. I want to remove it from discussion for now. Chat:  Senator Michelle Brownlee: What about something we all use, like pens?  Senator A Hayashi: Shirts are a pain -- both for the Senate with the orders and people with their use.  Senate Secretary Marcia Fulkerson: a metal mug?  Senator Catalina Elizabeth Yang: metal travel mug?  Senator Joshua R Lieser: Bobbleheads  Senator Della Louise Newlow: Bobble heads with your head on it!  Senator Joshua R Lieser: Collect all the Senators  Senator Dolores Corine Ortiz: It would look like a nose in a spreadsheet!
New Business  Treasurer's Report		There have been no expenses or revenues incurred since 2/14/22. The available balance in the Academic Senate checking accounts is $3862.00. In Spring 2022, the Academic Senate expects to have some expenses such as the two scholarships we fund with the help of the Oxnard College Foundation, and the purchase of student artwork. Since only around 44 full time faculty (out of over 100 total) had either contributed via automatic payroll deduction or directly (via check), the total amount collected by the end of the 2020-2021 fiscal/academic year, was $1410 from full-time faculty and another $35 from 7 part-time faculty. Obviously, we can do better. Our fresh efforts to solicit contributions in Fall 2021, yielded some additional commitments via automatic payroll deductions that will be taken out of our salaries in April 2022. These will count toward our due's contribution for the year 2021-2022. As the attached list of faculty names who have submitted automatic payroll deductions will show, despite the retirement of 7 full-time faculty on this list the number of full-time faculty who have committed to automatic payroll deductions has increased to 62 (an approximately 40% increase in the number of full-time contributors.) If this holds true then our revenue should increase from $1380.00 (2020-2021) to close to $1900.00 in 2021-2022. This is good news, indeed!

		Still, we know that many of our colleagues have yet to contribute. Therefore, another request for Academic Senate dues commitment (via payroll automatic deduction) was sent out in mid-February. The email was sent to department chairs and to all faculty. It also included a list of those who have already paid or made a commitment to have the amount due automatically deducted from their salary (once a year) at the district payroll. Please check the attached list of faculty, full and part-time who have authorized the one-time annual deduction from their pay-check ($30 for FT, and $5 for part-time), and please affirm that all your department colleagues are on the list. If they are not, then please help your Academic Senate reach out to the ones who are yet to authorize their automatic payroll deductions toward their AS contributions. I should add that Professor Alan Hayashi has paid by check for the year 2020-21 and 2021-22. And Professors Christine Morla (FT), Leo Orange (FT), Melissa Graham (PT), and Constantino Lopez (PT), have recently also sent me their authorization for automatic payroll deductions of AS dues. A BIG "Thank you" goes to all colleagues who have either contributed or authorized the same. Ishita Edwards (OCAS Treasurer) Documents in BoardDocs.
Definition of Equity	VP Elissa Caruth (Co-Chair of SESC)	The Senate will have a discussion of a newly drafted definition for equity from the Designing Equity workgroup. This definition is a result of a request from SESC to create a definition of equity for the college. Document is in BoardDocs. Senate VP Elissa Caruth: I co-chair the Student Equity and Success Committee. Part of our task is to create a definition of equity. I present this to you and I'm hoping for feedback. It can be put into the syllabus if you'd like. Statement posted in BoardDocs. I'd like to take an informal vote on #1 on this list. It is not an action item, just pulling feedback so I can meet with the workgroup. Discussion:  Senator Tom Stough: If there's any way to include the library's equity portion in that too, that would be a great.  Senator Lilia Ruvalcaba: I love this. It's really great. Include the word practices: what we do how we present in the classroom about the diversity of our classroom even if it's different from our own ethnicity.  Senator Dolores Ortiz: list ZTC and low-cost textbook options.  Senator Dylan Altman: I took that discussion language and rewrote it as a draft. I'll put in chat and email.

		Chat: Senator Deanna McFadden: This did not include none teaching faculty Senator Dolores Corine Ortiz: Could be pedagogy Senate President Amy Edwards: teaching style... pedagogy... research materials... instead of just "accessible" you want to spell out ZTC and LCT. Senator Deanna McFadden: Charles - any idea about how to include counseling and other student services? Senator Charles D Ramirez: I'll brainstorm with my group and type something up in an email. Senator A Hayashi: Even instructional Faculty do more than just Courses. Maybe needs to a bit more expansive. Senator Dylan Altman: Faculty and non-instructional faculty strive to make their courses equitable through diverse and inclusive curriculum, culturally aware pedagogy, fair and transparent grading policies, and accessible low textbook cost/ zero textbook costs learning materials. Senator A Hayashi: Once again, "courses" expanded to include "student interactions."? Senate Secretary Marcia Fulkerson: thank you for your work on this Senate VP Elissa Caruth: Thank you for your suggestions in the chat and the emails you just sent : ) I have captured your words and ideas. Thank you!
Accreditati on Section Review	Senate President Amy Edwards	We hope April 11 we will beginning reviewing sections of the ISER. I would like to assign a few folks to read a few pages. Discussion: Senator Cat Yang: My concern is the end of the semester is coming. Senate President Amy Edwards: I'll probably have a team lead and groupings of folks together. Senator Alan Hayashi: Are the faculty involved in other PG groups getting assignments so we'll overlap areas? Senate President Amy Edwards: yes, maybe. Senator Alan Hayashi: As the AFT member, in the district's analysis and evaluation section, they talk about input from trustees and their effect on evaluation and the process. IVC is the issue. They section out the AFT and its impact on the board and the board impact on the district specifically on notes and the main thing negotiations. From AFT's perspective, we think this is biased. It singles out AFT, negatively. We think the paragraph should be moved or modified because AFT was not the only group trying to influence the board for negotiations. (Section IV. C.4.)

		Senate President Amy Edwards: DCAP discussed and decided not to modify but there is still discussion taking place about this standard. Senator Lilia Ruvalcaba: It is important that we take a stand with trustees that support faculty. AFT does sound singled out. Chat: Senate Treasurer Ishita M Edwards: III D9-end of this section is still blank. Senate President Amy Edwards: IV.C.4... There is some analysis on AFT and Trustee conduct, and Alan would like everyone to review this section. Alan will send it out to Senators. This is not a final conversation on the issue. Standby for updates. This is still a draft.

Damien, Gabriela, and Keller gave a report on Student Equity Data and recommended targeted campaigns to reach students in disproportionately impacted groups, which include males and Hispanics for transfer-level math and English. Sofia shared Spring 2022 student survey results that show students plan to repeat their class scheduling choices in Fall 2022 with a mix of in-person and online classes. The meeting wrapped up with presentations from Guided Pathways, Peer Mentoring, and LLRC Services about how they are all supporting students. March (3/2/22)          Letty announced new Transfer Center workshops aimed at how to transfer to a UC and a CSU. The Designing Equity Workgroup shared a draft of the college’s equity definition and got feedback from the committee with suggestions for revision. Damien shared the ACCJC Annual report with an overview of our floor and stretch goals for course completion rate, certificates, associate degrees, and transfers. Then Sofia shared good news about the three-year trend of fall awards; fall semester awards are steadily increasing despite enrollment decreasing. According to Chancellor’s office data, there are no equity gaps in completion as regards gender, but Asian, Black/African American, Filipino, and White students are disproportionately impacted. The meeting wrapped up with presentations from Guided Pathways, EOPS/CARE, and CalWORKs about how they are supporting students. PDC: Cat the last deadline for faculty travel is March 25. SS: on behalf of Lawley AFT: nominations for offices closed Fri., so a ballot will be mailed out April.
