Who can take classes at Oxnard College? Everyone!

Oxnard College welcomes all students, regardless of their immigration status, and we are committed to fully supporting all of our students in their educational journey. Admission is open to any high school graduate, anyone possessing a high school proficiency certificate, a General Education Diploma (GED), or any adult 18 years of age or older and capable of benefiting from instruction. Students entering any of the public community colleges of California are subject to the residency requirements by the State of California.

Each course offered by the Ventura County Community College District and its colleges is open to enrollment and participation by any person who has been admitted to the college and who meets the prerequisites to the class or program, unless specifically exempted by statute.
