Social Distancing and Self Quarantine

WHAT IS SOCIAL DISTANCING?

Canceling events that are likely to draw crowds is an example of social distancing. Social distancing increases the physical space between people to help avoid spreading germs. Staying at least 6 feet away from other people lessens your chances of catching COVID-19.

EXAMPLES OF SOCIAL DISTANCING:

- WORKING FROM HOME INSTEAD OF AT THE OFFICE
- CLOSING SCHOOLS OR SWITCHING TO ONLINE CLASSES
- VISITING LOVED ONES BY ELECTRONIC DEVICES INSTEAD OF IN PERSON

WHAT IS SELF-QUARANTINE?

Staying indoors and avoiding social contact is to self-quarantine. Self-quarantine should be at the direction of your health care provider. Please call their office if you are feeling ill for specific recommendations.

SELF-QUARANTINE INVOLVES:

- USING STANDARD HYGIENE AND WASHING HANDS FREQUENTLY
- NOT SHARING THINGS LIKE TOWELS AND UTENSILS
- STAYING AT HOME
- NOT HAVING VISITORS
- STAYING AT LEAST 6FT AWAY FROM OTHER PEOPLE IN YOUR HOUSEHOLD

Social Distancing and Self Quarantine

WHAT IS ISOLATION?

For individuals who are confirmed to have COVID-19, Isolation is appropriate. To keep infected individuals with contagious illnesses away from those who are not infected. Isolation can take place at home or at hospital or care facility.

WHAT IS "FLATTENING THE CURVE"?

Flattening the curve means to use protective practices in order to slow down the rate of COVID-19 infection, so hospitals have room, supplies, and doctors for all of the patients who need care.

There is plenty of room available to use for studying or to have study groups. We welcome all suggestions to make the "College Experience" more enjoyable for all. Our Oxnard College faculty and staff are welcome to suggest ways for us to help them make their classes easier for, not only their students but all OC students as well.

Breakfast with ASG

The Oxnard College Associated Student Government is all about connecting with their fellow peers to make sure that their voices are heard. What better way to make connections than through food! When you think about life's greatest's special occasions, food is usually at the center of each one. The ASG council thought making a pancake breakfast for their OC students would bring lots of joy and comfort to their home away from home. Not only does preparing meals together provide a bonding experience for our student leaders but sharing those meals that they worked so hard to prepare with other students grants the opportunity to extend hospitality towards one another.

Black History Month Celebration

During February we promoted Black History Month here at the Oxnard College.

We successfully kicked off the celebration with movie night. The featured film "The Hate U Give" is an outstanding film that portrays the racial discrimination African Americans face when encountering prejudice police officers and the pressures that come with trying to stand up for what's right. Our Associated Student Government provided free hotdogs, chicken bakes, churros, and refreshments for all in attendance. ASG Secretary, Marissa Lopez was the spearhead for this wonderful event.

Later in the month ASG Senator, Megan Hall hosted a Paint Night in the Student Lounge with the help of ASG Senate Chair Jessica Espitia. We used this event as a way to pay tribute towards influential African Americas. Many students found it very stress relieving as they were able to paint freely without feeling the pressures of "Not knowing how to draw or paint".

SoCal & NorCal Exposure Tour

Oxnard College Associated Student Government hosts their annual Exposure Tour during the week of Spring Break. The tours included schools include: Private, UC, and Cal State Universities.

In 2018, The SoCal Exposure University Tours included: Cal State Long Beach, Fullerton, San Diego, San Marcos, UC Irvine, San Diego and the Private University of San Diego. Through the duration of this 4-day Exposure tour, 40 students were selected to visit a total of 7 Universities. The hands-on experience was transformative as many of our students had never visited these 7 schools. It definitely is very eye opening for students who don't believe that they can achieve a much higher education experience.

*

In 2019, the Associated Student Government partnered up with the First Year Experience program to host the NorCal Exposure Tour! The NorCal Exposure University tours included: UC Davis, UC Santa Cruz, and San Jose State. We encourage all students on the path towards transferring to attend this trip in order to expose themselves to what these universities have to offer. Don't miss your opportunity to be part of this exciting trip!

Keep your eyes open for future opportunities on and off campus.
