The Ventura County Community College District will host a public forum on March 20, 2017 to present the six finalists for the position of Chancellor. The forum will be held at the Ventura County Office of Education (5100 Adolfo Road, Salon A, B, and C, Camarillo, CA). The community and VCCCD students, faculty, and staff are invited to hear the candidates speak. Each will have thirty-five minutes to address the audience and participate in a question and answer session, followed by a ten-minute break.

Live Stream:

The forum schedule is as follows:

- 2:30 p.m. - Melinda Nish
- 3:15 p.m. - Jerry Buckley
- 4:00 p.m. - Otto Lee
- 4:45 p.m. - Greg Gillespie
- 5:30 p.m. - David El Fattal
- 6:15 p.m. - Arturo Reyes

If you are unable to attend the forum in person, the event will be live-streamed through the District website. Following Board of Trustees closed-session interviews on March 20-21, the final selection will be announced tentatively at the April 11, 2017 Board meeting with an anticipated start date of July 1, 2017. Candidate bios may be reviewed on the District website.

The Board of Trustees invites you to attend and provide input as the Board prepares for the interview process.
