Hi Silvia,

Can you please send the following email to allusers? Thank you!

Sent on behalf of the Professional Development Committee:

Good morning OC Family,

The Professional Development Committee will host a virtual professional development day for the January 5th 2023 self-assigned flex day with workshops available through Go2Knowledge and the Vision Resource Center.

Our college has access to over 120 pre-recorded webinars and many more live webinars through Go2Knowledge (Go2K) to meet your professional development needs. The link can be accessed from your portal, under the Resources for Staff > Professional Development.

Some currently featured online classes include:

- “I Don’t See Color, I Just See People: Becoming Culturally Competent” - this module examines the way in which the U.S. educational system perpetuates inequity and introduces various frameworks that can be leveraged to promote cultural competence and improve students’ experiences on campus.
- “Playing Behind the Screen: The Implicit Bias in Our Colleges” - this module introduces implicit bias and how it manifests on a college campus. The module offers strategies to address implicit bias at the institutional level to improve the educational outcomes for students and experiences for everyone on our campuses.

Both of the above resources are available year-round, however we hope you will take the time to explore the various opportunities on Thursday. .

We have reserved the computer lab in Condor Hall 342 from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. should you like to view a webinar in that space on Thursday, January 5th. We will have a limited number of headphones or you may bring your own.
