Oxnard College Academic Senate Board of Trustees Report January 21, 2020

The Oxnard College Senate is hard at work to enhance student success and to boost the communication climate at the college, overall.

- First, the Senators want the contract to be settled. Faculty want this process to remain collegial and transparent.
- Second, we have been working hard on updating our Participatory Governance manual and we are hard-at-work on our efforts related to Guided Pathways.
- Next, the Senate has committed to purchasing a piece of student artwork to be displayed somewhere on campus. Art history Professor Rainer Mack is working on our OC Art Collection which will soon fill our college walls.
- Finally, OC LIVE, our signature cultural performing arts series at OC, kicks off on Tuesday, January 28 at 6:00. Please join us to rediscover the music that had people dancing in the streets! HEATWAVE is a sparkling celebration of music from the girl groups of the 1960s to the reigning queens of pop music today. Please visit our OC LIVE website to note the schedule of events for this spring semester. We would love for you to join us.

Cheers,

Dr. Amy F. Edwards
